NOTICE OF ALLOWABILITY (PAPER # 9/3/2004)

CLAIM STATUS

1. Claims 1-11, 18-23 are pending.
Claims 12-17 & 24-27 are canceled by Applicant.

CLAIM REJECTIONS — 35 U.S.C. §103(a)

2. Rejections Withdrawn.

REASONS FOR ALLOWABILITY

3. The Applicant has sufficiently shown that the elements of claims 1-11, 18-23 have multiple implementation details not disclosed in the prior art of record.

Independent claims 1, 4 & 18 substantially recite in part a “click-through record including the time the user performed the click-through, the date the user performed the click through, geographic location data of the local device, an advertisement identifier code associated with the advertisement, a user identifier code associated with the user, and a sponsor identifier code associated with the sponsor. . . .” Support for these elements and limitations is found in the specification of the instant invention at least at pp. 20 & 37-39.

There is no showing of prima facie obviousness that either a given reference or a combination of references exist which contain elements in an inclusive arrangement as claimed in the instant invention. Therefore, the prior art references of record do not precisely teach or suggest the combination of elements of the instant invention. Therefore, the instant invention as claimed in independent claims 1, 4 & 18 is not anticipated by the prior art of record. Furthermore, the prior art references of record do not implicitly, individually or in combination disclose elements that would have rendered the claimed elements and limitations in the instant invention obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention.

Dependent claims 2-3, 5-11 & 19-23 are allowable because they depend from independent claims which contain allowable subject matter.
